

KIDS Matter in J7S

In J7S we have been focusing on what makes us happy. As a whole class we brainstormed what makes us feel good. We wrote our ideas down and we realised that the words we had on the board related to the people in our lives, not our things (although we decided sometimes ice-cream makes us very happy!). We drew our faces and then wrote down all the things that make us happy.

